Feasts this week:

Friday, St. Patrick

There will be Stations of the Cross at 5pm in Portree on the Sundays of Lent.

Alistair Dutton, the Director of SCIAF, is here to give a Lent talk at all the Masses. He met some of you last year when he was cycling the length of the diocese for SCIAF.

Next Sunday we will have the annual SCIAF collection. Special Gift Aid envelopes are available, so please take yours today so it is ready for next Sunday (and if you are away next weekend you can put it in the week after).

The SCIAF Wee Boxes are available in the back of the Church, as well as copies of My Day by Day, with Scripture readings for Lent.

As you will see, Philip has arrived, and he will be here until 5th April. He is good with computers and websites, so if you need help with these things, I am sure he would be happy to advise or assist you.

Congratulations to the winners of this month's 200 Club draw: Jonathan Humphrey, Inverness, £50; Catherine Robertson, Breakish, £30; and John MacDonald, Plockton, £20.

This year I have decided to make a change for Easter. The Easter Vigil will be in Broadford at 9pm on Holy Saturday. There will be no afternoon Mass on Easter Sunday in Broadford (we will have gone into the summer timetable by then anyway).

The Gift Aid envelopes for the new Financial Year have arrived, and I will get them ready for people to take between now and the first Sunday of April. If you have not yet signed up to Gift Aid and would like to join, or you would like to switch from envelopes to a Standing Order, or vice versa, this is a good time to let me know.

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in. There are also cards and gifts for sale. Thank you very much.

Music for Mass
