At 11am tomorrow there will be a short ceremony of interment at Portree cemetery for May Browne, who died in July. We entrust her to the loving mercy of God. May she rest in peace. Please pray also for her daughter Kris.

Mass in Broadford on Tuesday, at 12:10pm.

Mass in Kishorn this Thursday at 6pm.

Also, we will have our reading group after Mass in Portree on Friday.

Please pray for Fr. Wynne, who is currently in the Renal unit in Aberdeen Royal Infirmary. Knowing him, he will be up visiting everyone with communion when he should be resting!

The Fellowship of Reconciliation is holding a day's meetings at St Columba's Church in Portree on Saturday 25th November from 11 – 3pm. The day will focus on pacifism, and how we respond to the increased threat of violence in the world with a compassionate non-violent response. All are cordially invited.

Thank you for last week's Special Collection for the Pastoral Formation of the Diocese. This helps with things like the Music weekends, the Diocesan Youth Office and Adult Catechesis. We collected £93.80.

Bishop Brian is coming here on Thursday 30th November, the feast of St. Andrew. He will arrive in the afternoon, and there will be an evening Mass with him, followed by a social evening. He will visit Portree Primary on Friday morning to give them their Assembly. I have put up a sheet in the back of the church for you to indicate what you would be able to bring to the social evening.

Fr. Stan is organising a diocesan pilgrimage to Poland from 18th - 25th April next year. There are some flyers for those who did not get an e-newsletter.

Fr. Roddy and I will be doing our Advent parish swap on the weekend of 9-10 December. I will go to Stornoway on Friday 8th and back on Monday 11th.
