Feasts this week:

Wednesday, St. Antony of Egypt

Mass in Broadford will be on Wednesday. Please do not attempt to go round the back of St. Maolrubha's. The wall at the back collapsed and is very unsafe.

I will have no car on Tuesday, as it needs to go to the garage. If you need me that day, you might have to provide transport if you are beyond cycling range.

I am going over to Uist on Thursday for a clergy gathering, returning on Friday, so there will be no Mass on either of those days.

Thanks to all who have dedicated the plants in the windows. Now that Christmastide is over, and I am struggling to keep them alive, you can take yours home.

Thank you all for your generous contribution to the work of Justice and Peace last week. The total of £110.95 is only for Portree (Broadford has not been counted yet). Also, please take a look at the J&P website, www.justiceandpeacescotland.org.uk to see what they are doing.

Helen did a clearout of the parish kitchen and there are a few things, crockery and kitchenware that belong to members of the parish. Please have a look to see if there is anything of yours there.

Thanks to all those of you who bake cakes for after Mass. Could I ask one thing, to let me know beforehand if you are baking, so I don't take one out of the freezer which then might be wasted.

It is good practice to publish the collection each week in the newsletter, so I will begin doing that. You will see it lower left. It may not seem to add up, but we only bank whole bags of coins. BF= Building Fund, SO= Standing Orders.

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in. There are also cards and gifts for sale. Thank you very much.
