Wednesday, St. Francis de Sales
Thursday, The Conversion of St. Paul
Friday, Sts. Timothy and Titus

Please be very careful of the weather. There is quite a lot of snow in Portree (I don't know how that compares with other parts of the island). Driving may be difficult and the car park will be quite slippery.

Tomorrow is Bishop Ian Murray's 2nd anniversary, so I will offer Mass for him.

Mass in Broadford will be on Tuesday. Please do not attempt to go round the back of St. Maolrubha's. The wall at the back collapsed and is very unsafe.

There will be Mass in Kishorn on Thursday. I will offer this Mass for Bethany Walker, the young woman from Applecross who died recently.

Thank you all for your generous contribution to the work of Justice and Peace last week. The final total is £137.01. Also, please take a look at the J&P website, www.justiceandpeacescotland.org.uk to see what they are doing.

This week is Christian Unity week. This year the focus is on human freedom, and what prevents us being truly free: trafficking, modern slavery, exploitation and any form of violence. We remember that every human is made in the image and likeness of God and has an inherent dignity as a child of God. It is our duty as Christians to strive for freedom and equality for all. You can download the resources from <https://ctbi.org.uk/week-of-prayer-for-christian-unity-2018/>

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Hugo Vajk, who died at his work last week. He is from near Oban but wished to be buried in Kilmuir. His funeral will be in Oban and the burial will be in Kilmuir on Friday. Please pray also for his widow, Judith, and their family.

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in. There are also cards and gifts for sale. Thank you very much.
