Feasts this week:

Thursday, St. Duthac

Saturday, St. John Ogilvie

There will be Stations of the Cross at 5pm this Sunday and all Sundays of Lent.

I was not expecting to be here this week... but it was not possible to get to Norfolk. The 'Beast from the East' made travelling too hazardous. Also, Fr. Lochran was stuck in the snow himself. I hope you are not too disappointed.

I would like to thank Bishop Brian, who was ready to come to Skye this weekend in case I was still stuck in the snow.

There will be Mass in Broadford on Tuesday at the usual time of 12:10.

I will take this opportunity of a 'free week' to go to Kishorn on Thursday.

Please note that once again SCIAF is benefiting from the UK Government's Aid Match scheme, where every pound we raise will be doubled, as long as the money arrives at SCIAF before 8th May.

Next weekend is SCIAF Sunday, and there will be a Special Collection. I am going to put the Gift Aid envelopes out this weekend, so that you can take yours for the Special Collection.

Thanks to the kind people who sorted the pile of clothing for the refugees. I will be able to take all the bags to Conon Bridge on Friday morning.

The week after next (16-18 March), Fr. Roddy and I will be doing our Lenten swap. The format will be the same as usual; he will arrive for an evening Mass and Confessions on the Friday, the same on Saturday morning, and I will return on Monday (but I will be going directly to Oban to meetings and the Chrism Mass).

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in. There are also cards and gifts for sale. Thank you very much.

Music for Mass

Entrance	19	All people that on earth
Offertory	29	A new Commandment
Communion	313	Love is his word
Post-Communion	595	Jesus, remember me

“God is proved not only by the zeal of those who seek
Him, but by the blindness of those who seek him not”

Blaise Pascal
