Feasts this week:

Saturday, St. Patrick

There will be Stations of the Cross at 5pm this Sunday and all Sundays of Lent.

This weekend is SCIAF Sunday, and there will be a Special Collection. Most of you will have your Gift Aid envelopes, which I handed out last weekend, for today's Special Collection. I have a few left if anyone needs one.

Please note that once again SCIAF is benefiting from the UK Government's Aid Match scheme, where every pound we raise will be doubled, as long as the money arrives at SCIAF before 8th May.

There will be Mass in Broadford on Wednesday at the usual time of 12:10pm.

Thanks to the kind people who keep on donating clothing for the refugees. I was able to take all the bags to Conon Bridge on Friday. The people there asked me to thank you all very much for your continued support and generosity.

Next weekend (16-18 March), Fr. Roddy and I will be doing our Lenten swap. The format will be the same as usual; he will arrive for an evening Mass and Confessions on Friday, the same on Saturday morning.

Next Monday I will be going to Oban for the Finance meeting, Clergy gathering and bishop's meetings, and then the Mass of Chrism, which will be on Wednesday 21st March at 7pm. All are welcome to go, it is a lovely Mass.

Easter timetable (much the same as last year)

Holy Thursday, Mass of the Last Supper, Portree at 8pm.

Good Friday, Commemoration of the Passion, Portree at 3pm (also a lay-led service in Dornie at 3pm); Easter Vigil, Broadford, 8pm.

Easter Sunday Masses will be as normal (Portree 10am, Dornie 12:45pm), but no afternoon Mass in Broadford.

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in. There are also cards and gifts for sale. Thank you very much.
