Saturday, Our Lady of Sorrows

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Pola's Mum, Jean Wachala, who died yesterday. We entrust her to the loving mercy of the Father, and pray for Pola and Tony in this time of sadness. May Jean's good soul rest in peace.

Ronald will be leaving Skye tomorrow. He will go home to Benbecula for a week before returning to Rome for his final year of studies. He will be ordained to the Priesthood next summer. So we pray for him that he will continue to serve the Lord joyfully, and thank him for offering his life in service to the Church. I hope Ronald has enjoyed his time here as much as we have enjoyed having him.

This weekend we will have our Special Collection for the Ecclesial Students' Fund. This will go towards funding the seminary fees for Ronald and Philip. You have all seen what your money is paying for! Please be generous as you always are, and keep both Ronald and Philip in your prayers.

My Mum has gone to the Strathcarron Hospice in Denny, and I will be going south on Monday to see her. If you need me urgently you can contact me on my mobile 07717 022492, otherwise I will deal with it next week.

Today we will have a roll & sausage breakfast in aid of the Building Fund. It will be a fitting way of saying goodbye to Ronald.

Please see the poster in the back of the church about the upcoming LiturgyWorks weekend in the Conforti Institute in Coatbridge, which will be held on the weekend of 28th - 30th September. If you would like to go, please speak to or email me. There are still some spaces available.

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in. Thank you very much.

"Where there is no obedience, there is no virtue; where no virtue, no goodness; where no goodness, no love, and where there is no love, there is no God: without God we do not go to Paradise".
