Feasts this week

Thursday, All Saints

Friday, All Souls

Saturday, St. Martin de Porres

Apologies for Portree church being so cold this weekend. The heating system has given out and. The plumber has been working on it but I suspect it needs a new part. I will contact the plumber about it on Monday. I will also need to see about the leak in the church that caused the lights to fizz last Sunday. Please bring your thermals (you will probably need them on Wednesday evening too)!

A small change to the winter timetable: Please note that the winter timetable will take effect from the second weekend of November, with Mass in Broadford at 3pm on Sunday 11th November. I have moved it back a week to accommodate a baptism in Dornie on Sunday 4th November.

I am also going to move Mass in Portree on 11th November to 9:30am. This will allow anyone who wants to go to the Armistice service in the square. After all this is the Centenary of the end of World War 1.

Thursday 1st November is the Solemnity of All Saints, and is a Holyday of Obligation. Masses will be at the normal times: Wednesday 31st, 7pm, Portree. Thursday 1st, 6pm, Dornie, 7:30pm, Broadford.

A message from Missio Scotland "Thank you for putting faith and action together by responding to Missio Scotland's World Mission Sunday Appeal last weekend. We raised £243.38. Your donations and prayers will go towards supporting the work of our missionaries worldwide. Furthermore, your example, like that of missionaries all over the world, will serve as an inspiration to our young people, who will, in turn, inspire others as they live out their Baptismal mission and play their part in the universal Church. Last year, thanks to your generosity, Missio Scotland sent £207,714 to support projects in Kenya, Zimbabwe and Sri Lanka. Thank you!"

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in. Thank you very much.

"The process of healing also needs to include the pursuit of truth, not for the sake of opening old wounds, but rather as a necessary means of promoting justice, healing and unity."
