Feasts this week

Thursday, Blessed John Duns Scotus

Friday, The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Saturday, St. Leo the Great

Please note that the winter timetable will take effect from next weekend, with Mass in Broadford at 3pm on Sunday 11th November.

Next Sunday Mass in Portree will be at 9:30am to allow anyone who wants to go to the Armistice service in the square. After all this is the Centenary of the end of World War 1.

Congratulations to Innes MacRae, son of Paul and Karen MacRae, Dornie, who is being baptised today. We welcome him joyfully into the body of the Church and pray that the Holy Spirit will always rest upon him and all his family.

I have put the November lists in the baskets in front of the altar in each of the churches. Please write the names of your deceased loved ones on them, and I will offer one Mass each week for the Holy Souls.

The Christmas hamper is out, so please can people bring some nice things to put in it. Also, as usual, the tickets are £1 each, or £5 per strip. Thank you very much.

I will be sending Missio Scotland their collection money this week, so if there are any Gift Aid forms outstanding, could you please bring them in. The total, including some from last week, was £275.38

Next week we will have our Special Collection for the Pastoral Formation Fund of the Diocese. This goes towards things like the LiturgyWorks music weekend, Adult Catechesis and the training of Permanent Deacons. Please be generous as usual, and thank you for all your contributions to the parish and the diocese.

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in. Thank you very much.

“You are afraid to suffer, but it were better to thank God for it, since the more you undergo down here, the less you will endure above. Grief is a portion of one's heritage taken in advance from Purgatory.”
