Feasts this week

Monday, St. Francis Xavier

Friday, St. Ambrose

Saturday, the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

I think we should do our Advent boxes for the homeless and those on a tight budget again. The number of people needing food-banks increases every year.

Fr Roddy and I will be doing our usual Advent swap, on the weekend of 7th-9th December. I will be heading to Stornoway on Thursday 6th, returning on Monday 10th. Fr. Roddy will be arriving on Friday in time for a 7pm Mass in Portree with Confessions afterwards. He will hear Confessions after Mass on Friday, and on Saturday morning, and before and after the Sunday Masses.

Thanks very much to Greg for compiling the quizzes in aid of the Building Fund. It is time to complete them. They are £5 each.

The Christmas hamper is out, so please bring some nice things to put in it. Also, as usual, the tickets are £1 each, or £5 per strip. Thanks very much to the people who have already donated things.

Some people have been asking about the Christmas Masses. There will be a night Mass at 9pm in Dornie. Masses on Christmas Day will be at 10am in Broadford and 12 noon in Portree.

If you would like to remember a deceased loved one at Christmas, you can donate £10 towards the Building Fund and have a plant in the window dedicated. Please complete the form and return to the church, or to Faye Macneil, or to Shona Campbell.

I have agreed with Bishop Brian that I will take a break for a few weeks after Christmas. I have managed to get cover for 4 consecutive Sundays. I will be away from 7th January until 9th February.

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in. Thank you very much.
