Feasts this week

Monday, Our Lady of Lourdes

Thursday, Sts. Cyril & Methodius

Please pray for the soul of Canon Angus MacQueen, who died peacefully in St. Brendan's Care Home on Barra on Saturday morning. Canon MacQueen was one of those special priests who made a difference to so many lives, serving in many parishes in the diocese over his long years of ministry. Each of us will remember him for different things, all of them special. May he rest in peace. Arrangements for his funeral have not yet been made, and I will let you know when I find out.

Many thanks to Fr. Tom MacDonnell, to Bishop Brian, and to Fr. John Paul MacKinnon for serving you so well while I was away on my break. Thank you as well for making them welcome.

Thanks to everyone for their generosity towards the St. Patrick's Missionaries. We collected £424.04, (more if that does not include Dornie) during the Parish Mission appeal in January.

Monday 11th February is the World Day of the Sick, so let us pray especially for those we know and love who are ill, as well as all those who are terminally ill, and those who have nobody to pray for them.

There will be Mass in Broadford on Wednesday and in Kishorn on Thursday (unless they clash with Canon MacQueen's funeral).

Thinking about the Diocesan Priesthood?- The Catholic Church in Scotland is now inviting enquiries from men considering a Vocation to the Priesthood and would like to apply for Seminary in 2020. Do you feel called to the Vocation of the Priesthood? Would you like to be a Priest for our Diocese of Argyll & the Isles? For more information on applying or for any other questions in discerning a Vocation to the Priesthood-then please contact our Diocesan Vocations Director- Fr. John Paul MacKinnon, Our Lady Star of the Sea, Castlebay, Isle of Barra, HS9 5XD or phone 01871 810267 or email- castlebay@rcdai.org.uk

“Vocations are born in prayer and from prayer; and only in prayer can they persevere and bear fruit.”
Pope Francis
