2nd Sunday of Lent, Year C

17th March 2019

Mass Times:

Sunday:

Portree
Sunday 10 am

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Nancy O'Connor, Liz O'Connor-Pierce's mother, who died peacefully in Broadford hospital last night. I will notify you of her funeral arrangements as I know them. Please pray for Liz, John and all their family. May she rest in the loving presence of God.

Dornie
Sunday 12:45 pm

Stations of the Cross in Portree at 5pm.

Broadford:
Sunday 3pm

Tuesday is the Solemnity of St. Joseph. It remains a feast, even in Lent, with its own proper readings and Preface.

Monday
10:30am Portree

I will have no car on Monday, the driver's door is being fixed. I also have to see the Orthoptist at lunchtime, so Mass will be earlier than usual.

Tuesday
12:10pm Broadford

Mass in Broadford will be on Tuesday this week. We can have our discussion on the Lent book after Mass, now that it is nice and warm in there! We will have our next Lenten discussion in Portree on Thursday or Friday (depending on Mrs. O'Connor's funeral) .

Wednesday
No Mass

No Mass on Wednesday, as I will be in Inverness that day.

Thursday
10:30am Portree

Your SCIAF wee boxes are available at the back of the church as well as the My Day by Day booklets with the daily readings for Lent.

Friday
10:30am Portree

I have arranged our parish swap with Fr. Roddy again. I will be going to Stornoway for Palm Sunday like last year.

Confessions

Before and after
Mass and on request

The weekend for swapping to the summer timetable for Broadford will be the first weekend of April. There will be a Vigil Mass on Saturday 6th April.

"God places us in the world as his fellow workers-agents of transfiguration. We work with God so that injustice is transfigured into justice, so there will be more compassion and caring, that there will be more laughter and joy, that there will be more togetherness in God's world"

Archbishop Desmond Tutu
