Broadford:
Sunday 3pm

Today is SCIAF Sunday, and there will be a Special Collection. As usual, SCIAF have supplied their own Gift Aid envelopes for this collection. If you are a UK taxpayer you can use yours on any of the next three Sundays so that SCIAF benefit from the extra 25%. You will also find a letter from Bishop Toal on the back of the newsletter and as an e-attachment.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Joseph Rigby. I will be conducting a service of interment of his ashes in Broadford cemetery at 11am on Tuesday. Please keep his son Philip in your prayers as well.

Monday
1:20pm Portree

Tuesday
12:10pm Broadford

Wednesday
10:30am Portree

Thursday
6pm Kishorn

Friday
10:30am Portree

Mass in Broadford will be on Tuesday again this week (after the interment). We will have another discussion on the Lent book after Mass. We will have our next Lenten discussion in Portree on Friday.

There will be Mass in Kishorn at 6pm this Thursday.

Your SCIAF wee boxes are available at the back of the church as well as the My Day by Day booklets with the daily readings for Lent.

I have arranged our parish swap with Fr. Roddy again. I will be going to Stornoway for Palm Sunday like last year.

Confessions
Before and after
Mass and on request

The weekend for swapping to the summer timetable for Broadford will be the first weekend of April. This weekend is the last Sunday 3pm Mass in Broadford. There will be a Vigil Mass at 6pm next Saturday, 6th April.

Collection:
Offertory: £184.52
B.F.: £147.97
Teas, Votives: £16.31
Shop: £1.20
Banked £350.00

The boxes of Gift Aid envelopes have arrived for the new tax year beginning 6th April. Those of you with higher numbers have had their numbers reallocated. I thank you for using this so well, as we gained over £6500 from our Gift Aid rebate last year.

S.O.: £55.00

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in.

Music for Mass
