Mass in Broadford will be on Wednesday this week. I will celebrate it on my way to Oban for the Chrism Mass. There will be no Mass in the parish on Thursday.

Broadford: Sunday 3pm

Something I noticed; not many of the Wee Box packs have been taken (either that or there were more than I thought. They do not present as 'boxes' rather as small information packs in a folder. Anyway, the wee boxes are in there.

10:30am Portree

We will be doing our Parish Swap this coming weekend. Fr Roddy will be coming again. I will be going to Stornoway, leaving on Friday afternoon. There will be Mass at 7pm in Portree on Friday, followed by Confessions. Mass at 10:30am on Saturday followed by Confessions. And there will be Confession before and after all Sunday Masses (having the Vigil in Broadford means that there is the possibility of Confession after Mass in Portree and Dornie as Fr. Roddy will not be in so much of a rush). It is good to take advantage of the visiting priest for Confession in Lent (even if it is the same strange priest every year). The people of Stornoway also have to put up with a strange priest.

Wednesday
12:10pm Broadford
(Chrism Mass, Oban)

Thursday
No Mass

Friday

A note from Mairi and Angus Neil MacDonald, Torrin:

"On a recent visit to Canada we met Fr Lawrence MacLennan, who some parishioners may remember as serving our parish from St Duthac's, Dornie circa 1997. We were delighted to see him in Ottawa, on the occasion of his 90th birthday and he asked us to send blessings and good wishes to all parishioners, in the Dornie area and the Isle of Skye".

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in.

"Love seeks one thing only:
the good of the one loved. It leaves all the other secondary effects to take care of themselves. Love, therefore, is its own reward."
