Feasts this week:

Wednesday, St. Joseph the Worker

Thursday, St. Athanasius

Friday, Sts. Philip & James, Apostles

My sincere thanks to everyone who helped, prepared and participated in our Easter liturgies. It was good to see so many people at Mass on Easter Sunday.

The roll and sausage breakfast has been postponed to Sunday 11th May. Sorry if anyone is disappointed at not getting their sausage breakfast this weekend.

Mass on Wednesday in Broadford, and on Thursday in Kishorn.

Any more Wee Boxes out there? Please bring yours in as soon as is feasible so I can send the money to SCIAF. Many thanks for those that have arrived so far.

LiturgyWorks will be on next weekend of the 3rd-5th May in the Conforti Institute, Coatbridge. There is a poster in the back of the church, and if you are interested in going, please let me know.

Advance warning that I will be going on pilgrimage to the Holy Land from 20th - 30th May. I will need to travel down to Manchester on Sunday 19th, so I have arranged for a priest to come and stay while I am away. He will cover both weekends (19th, 26th May) and the Feast of the Ascension on 30th May.

The weekend after next is Good Shepherd Sunday, and there will be a Special Collection for our seminarians; currently Ronald is finishing up in Rome, and Philip is in his first year at the Beda College there. Please keep them in your prayers, and pray for more men to come forward to serve our diocese. On that note, please keep Mgr. Donald MacKinnon, Fort William, in your prayers. He has announced his retirement from active ministry after 48 years. We wish him a happy and peaceful retirement.

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes from the porch and fill it in.

“We are all sinners.
But God heals us
with an abundance of grace, mercy and forgiveness.”
Pope Francis
