Feasts this week:

Monday, St. Bonaventure

Tuesday, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel

Congratulations to Fr. Ronald Campbell, on his ordination to the priesthood in Benbecula last Tuesday. It was a great occasion and good to see our parish well represented. Fr. Ronald has been appointed to Lochgilphead. He will be going there in August. I managed to get a large pile of ordination cards, which are available. Please take one and keep Fr. Ronald in your prayers.

Today is Sea Sunday, and there will be a special collection for the work of the Apostleship of the Sea. Our diocesan AOS representatives are Deacons Thomas Wynne and Martin Matheson. They go and visit seafarers in all the ports and harbours in our diocese. Please pray for them and for all who work in this apostolate. Again, no pink envelopes, please. They have their own Gift Aid envelopes, which I mentioned last weekend.

A word from Tony Livesey: "Tony and Pola Livesey would like to offer thanks to Bishop Brian, Father William, and all of the parish congregation who made last week's Mass and initiation into the ministries of lector and acolyte such a wonderful and joyous occasion. It meant so very much to us. Thank you all".

I have come to realise that there are certain tasks in the parish that I do myself, which are not normally done by the priest, such as banking the money, doing the Gift Aid, the parish website, and mowing the grass. I would not expect Fr. Noel to automatically see these as his tasks. I think it would be good if members of the parish were in a position to do them if Fr. Noel does not want to. He will have plenty to do getting acclimatised and finding his way round both parishes. So, if you are willing to do some of these (and other things), please speak to me.

Everyone is invited to a presentation of "Eyewitness stories from Israel and the West Bank" in St. Columba's church, Portree next Sunday, 21st July, at 12:30pm, by Jane Dallas Ross from the Quakers. Please see the poster.

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes.

"Compassion is a word full of meaning. It means: sharing the same passion, sharing the same suffering, sharing the same agony, accepting into my heart the misery in yours."
