Thank you all for last week's collection for the Apostleship of the Sea. I sent £332.82 to them, (£187.45 from Skye and £145.37 from Dornie). Please pray for Deacons Thomas Wynne and Martin Matheson, and for all who work in this apostolate. They go and visit seafarers in all the ports and harbours in our diocese.

Tuesday will be a House Mass at Agnes O'Neil's in Inverinate at 12 noon. You are all welcome to come, but let me know or phone Agnes on 01599 511341

Congratulations to Arron Matheson from Duirinish, who will be making his First Holy Communion in Dornie today. We pray for him, for his Mum and Dad, his sister, Lucy, and all their family.

Next week there will be a Special collection for the Bishop's fund. This is used for Bishop Brian's travelling expenses (all those ferry trips add up!). Thank you once again for your generosity. This time, if you have the boxes of envelopes, please use one of the green ones and tick the box for Bishop's Fund.

To those of you who volunteered to help out in the ways I mentioned last week, thank you very much. There will be other things Fr. Noel will need help with and a fair amount of acclimatising for him to do.

I was surprised to find out that Fr. Noel does not yet have a UK driving licence (Nigerian ones are not valid here). He will be taking lessons as a priority once he arrives! In the meantime he will need drivers. I am not going to arrange that myself but I thank all those who would be able to help with this.

Everyone is invited to a presentation of "Eyewitness stories from Israel and the West Bank" in St. Columba's church, Portree this Sunday, 21st July, at 12:30pm, by Jane Dallas Ross from the Quakers. Please see the poster.

To our visitors: you are very welcome to stay for tea/coffee after Mass. If you are a UK taxpayer, please take one of the white Gift Aid envelopes.
